

Geometric Pictures

Shapes are all around us. Help your students recognize the presence of geometric shapes everywhere by having them create pictures composed entirely of geometric shapes.

Procedures:

- Each student will create a picture using the geometric shapes, they have learned in class.
- Every part of the picture must be a geometric shape.

Example:

Allow your student to use different colors and challenge them to label all the geometric shapes!